NZCETA SALES POLICY

Please note that all CETA resources are produced using Microsoft Windows XP

Ordering Resources from NZCETA

- All prices are GST inclusive.
- The order form lists all the new resources which are described in the newsletter.
- Only use the correct order form. Orders will be accepted via email, fax or post – no telephone orders are acceptable. If payment is not attached, a school order number must be given.
- When ordering resources from the CETA catalogue, write the name and number of the resource in the blank space provided at the end of the order form.
- Resources are available on disk or USB keydrive only with the exception of booklets and posters which can be ordered as hardcopy. Preference must be indicated on the Order Form.
- When an order is received CETA prepares a Tax Invoice, including the CETA GST number. If payment accompanies the order, the invoice is stamped 'Paid', if not it is stamped "Payment Due within Seven Days". The invoice is sent with the order.
- Members' differential: to take advantage of the differential we offer to CETA members, it is essential that you complete the appropriate section on the order form with your membership number. To receive this differential the order must be made by a member and not on behalf of another person, or by quoting another member's number. We know that members appreciate this differential, and we are keen to continue our policy, but we must ensure that it is not abused, or it will be necessary to reconsider.

Delivery of Resources

- All resources are sent using courier services.
- Postage fee: A flat fee is payable on all orders to cover courier and packaging costs. Please remember to include this in the order total.
- Courier service: The courier service CETA uses requires all mail to be addressed to a street address. For this reason, it is essential to supply a school street address on all resource material orders. A post office box or private bag is NOT acceptable.

Payment for Resources

- Any items purchased on credit must be paid no later than the 20th of the month following purchase.
- CETA would like to encourage members and schools to use direct crediting when paying for subscriptions, professional development, and resource purchases. Schools will need to send a Direct Credit Authorisation Form to CETA for bank account details. Please note that if this type of payment is used it is essential to indicate what the payment is for, example "resources", "PD", "subs – name of member".

- Please make cheques payable to NZCETA, and crossed Not Transferable.
- All prices include GST.

Moderation/Evaluation

All CETA Achievement Standard resources have been checked by experienced subject experts. Please note that this is not an official NZQA moderation.

themes (content and concepts). The context is business operating on a global level

This Level 8 Business Studies resource provides teaching and learning support for Level 8 Business Studies. This resource explores the NZC Future Focus principles of Sustainability, Citizenship, Enterprise and Globalisation and how these principles may be incorporated into the teaching of all Level 8 topics. While ideas have been provided the manner in which these principles have been incorporated can be added to or amended by the teacher. A number of the supporting resources, examples, links and complementary documents on these NZC Future Focus principles have also been provided for teachers. A template has been included. The resource links with the Senior Secondary Business Studies Teaching and Learning Guide and relates to the NZC Future Focused principles of Sustainability, Citizenship, Entrepreneurship and Globalisation. It meets Level 8 Learning Objective One: Analyse how and why New Zealand businesses operating in global markets make operational and strategic decisions in response to interacting internal and external factors and Level 8 Learning Objective Two: Plan, take to market, review and then refine an innovative, sustainable business activity; analyse the activity and its success in the market place. It addresses the Business Studies themes Functions of Business, People in Business, Business Management and Business Environment in the NZCETA Business Studies Level 8 Handbook and links to all Level 8 Achievement Standards. The values students learn about through the incorporation of the NZC Future Focus principles are not theme or topic specific. The Future Focus principles are big ideas based on concepts which relate to the different themes and topics. Therefore, the values of Excellence; Innovation, inquiry and curiosity; Diversity; Integrity; and Respect will vary and should be evident in the both the Future Focus principles and the themes and topics that these principles relate to. It is important for teachers, when presenting new concepts such as the Future Focus Principles, they provide resources, activities and a learning environment that encourages students to develop the key competencies of Thinking; Relating to Others; Using Language, Symbols and Texts; Managing Self; and Participating and Contributing.

This resource provides an opportunity for teachers to use a fun, engaging game approach to teach the topic of Total Quality Management (TQM) instead of using the traditional lecture style lesson to introduce the topic. Through game simulation students will be able to appreciate the key principles of the TQM program. It links with the Senior Secondary Schools Teaching and Learning Guidelines for Business Studies Level 8, Achievement Standards 91379 and 91381. It links with Business Functions Level 8 as part of the NZCETA Business Studies Handbook Three. This resource was revised in April 2017.

This resource is designed to be used to teach as part of an NCEA Level Three Business Studies programme. In particular it focuses on Total Quality Management, which is part of the Quality topic in the theme of Business Functions. There is also a link to Quality Management Issues.

It is suggested that the theory and activities would take 4 hours teaching and learning time.

Specific Content

Define the principles of Total Quality Management

Identify the significance of Quality Control to business operations

Describe the process of Total Quality Management

Contents: Resource Descriptor; PowerPoint of Game Instructions; 3 Survey Forms; Cost of Production Card; Transaction Record Sheet; Production Control Chart; Production Flowchart Template; Quality Statement Template; Evaluation Report Exercise Sheet; PowerPoint of TQM Principles

Learning Objective(s):

1. Understand the importance of an innovative working environment and strategies businesses can employ to encourage innovative culture (role in business success).

2. Identify types and examples of innovative global businesses (strategies and cultures favouring innovation, risks and opportunities of innovation)).

3. Understand the impacts on businesses which do or do not encourage innovation.

This comprehensive resource package covers the theory involved with the innovation topic which is a section in Achievement Standard 3.1 (AS91379).

This pack focuses on student directed learning in which students are able to use the PowerPoint with voiceover to learn the theory and complete the activities to cement their understanding of the theory, as well as, apply the theory to a case study of a New Zealand business. (Air New Zealand)

This resource provides an opportunity for teachers to incorporate digital tools in their classroom to engage students with the innovation topic. It also allows students to be self-directed in their learning as they will be able to go through the PowerPoint before the lesson which will allow the teacher to expand on some points during the designated teaching period, and for students to ask informed questions.

It links with the Senior Secondary Schools Teaching and Learning Guidelines for Business Studies Level 8, Achievement Standard 91379.

It links with Business Functions Level 8 as part of the NZCETA Business Studies Handbook Three.

This resource is designed to be used for the NCEA Level 3 Business Studies programme. It covers the specific content required to teach innovation and also provides interactive activities that will stretch the student to consider what impact innovation has on an organisation, and how a business can improve their corporate culture to encourage an innovative culture.

The PowerPoint covers the theory needed for innovation. Revised 2017

Learning Objective: Analyse how and why New Zealand businesses operating in global markets make operational and strategic decisions in response to interacting internal and external factors.

This resource includes useful teaching and revision notes to support teachers of Business Studies in the delivery of content and activities in the topic of Investment Appraisal. Conducting business on a daily basis generally requires making decisions – decisions that impact on all areas of the business. The most common decisions are made around investing and the purchasing of assets and equipment. Businesses generally do not like to throw money away so any time a business spends money the objective is make a return on the investment. However, there is sometimes a risk involved. The process of investment appraisal helps to reduce this risk and hopefully increase the return on the investment. This resource explores two methods of investment appraisal in depth; Payback Period, Average Rate of Return (ARR). A third method; Net Present Value is also included. The concepts are explored, and examples provided for each method. Questions and cases are added to provide the student with some practical application. After studying this topic students should be able to use this knowledge to ascertain the method that will bring the most benefit to the business. NOTE: While calculations of the three different methods are NOT required for assessment purposes these have been included in this resource for teachers and students to gain a better understanding of the different methods. The calculations could be used as an extension activity for more capable learners.

This resource will provide them with all of the information they will need to help them understand the requirements of this part of the exam. This case study is based on Howard Wright, a New Zealand business producing hospital beds and stretchers, operating in a global context. Included are notes and information about Howard Wright, on each of the three topics in 3.1. There are also tasks for students to complete on each topic. Past NZQA exam questions presented in the booklet can be answered by students using Howard Wright as a New Zealand firm operating in a global context that they have studied in depth. This resource could be used as a stand-alone for students or as a class activity. The resource will provide teachers with some surety on the type of content their students will be required to understand in order to be successful with this aspect of the exam. Students have to make some assumptions as they won't know exactly what the business might do in the future – the key is to help them to be able to use real business knowledge and theory to support these assumptions Contents: Case Study includes: notes on each topic relating to Howard Wright's business, practice tasks (32 pages) and answers
